

Ensuring No Net Loss for biodiversity and people

20th November 2018, Oxford, UK

Credit: D. Kernott, D. Rogers, H.G. Jones

Agenda

Registration is from 9.30am

Time	Session	Speaker
Opening session: Chair - Julia Jones (Bangor University)
10.00 – 10.10	Welcome address	Professor Sir Charles Godfray (Oxford Martin School)
10.10 – 10.30	Biodiversity NNL/NG and people: what and why?	EJ Milner-Gulland (University of Oxford)
Three reflections on how social issues affect NNL/NG implementation: Chair - Julia Baker (Balfour Beatty)
10.30 – 10.50	Addressing the social impacts of biodiversity offsets from a major mine	Josia Razafindramanana (Ambatovy)
10.50 – 11.10	The right of public access in Sweden - now towards a new NNL legislation?	Anders Enetjärn (Enetjärn Natur, Sweden)
11.10-11.20	Coffee break
11.20 – 11.40	A Wildlife Trust's perspective on securing social values in net biodiversity gain	Mathew Frith (London Wildlife Trust)

Time	Session	Speaker
11.40 – 12.30	Panel discussion with the speakers of the morning Chaired by Julia Jones (Bangor University)	Josia Razafindramanana, Anders Enetjärn, Mathew Frith
12.30 – 13.15	Lunch
	Two sectoral perspectives: Chair - Joe Bull (Wild Business Ltd)
13.15 – 13.45	Mainstreaming biodiversity NNL into government: an example from Uganda (panel)	Beatrice Kyasiimire (Wildlife Conservation Society, Uganda), Dianah Nalwanga (Nature Uganda), Hugo Rainey (Wildlife Conservation Society)
14.45 – 15.05	Social considerations in the design and implementation of biodiversity offsets: opportunities and risks for business (launch of an Industry Briefing Note)	Helen Temple (The Biodiversity Consultancy)
Social principles launch: Chair - Julia Baker (Balfour Beatty)
15:05- 15:25	Launch of the social good practice principles	Joe W Bull (Wild Business Ltd)
15.25- 15.40	Introduction to critical issues discussion, what are these issues and why are they important?	Victoria Griffiths (Bangor University)
15.40 – 16.10	Break-out session; rotating groups (Chair - Julia Baker, Balfour Beatty)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Measuring wellbeing</li> <li>2) Counterfactuals</li> <li>3) Sharing examples of current projects where the principles might be helpful</li> </ol>
16.10 – 16.45	Panel discussion: looking to the future (Chair - EJ Milner-Gulland)	Phil Clifton (Balfour Beatty), Joe Bull (Wild Business Ltd), Katharine Gotto (Synergy Global Consulting and Chair - Social Practice Forum), Sharon Brooks (UN Environment World Conservation Monitoring Centre)
16.45 – 17.00	Closing remarks	Julia Jones (Bangor University)
17.00	Drinks reception	